2010 – Member Phi Kappa Phi National Honor Society

2010 – Alumnus in Residence, Grand Valley State University

2009-2010. American Council on Education Fellow. The ACE Fellows Program is the leading program in the nation for developing future leaders in higher education. It is the only national program of its kind that identifies and intensively mentors a select number of individuals each year who are nominated by their home university. There are several week-long retreats, visits to multiple campuses across the United States that are part of the training, and special projects regarding financial planning and strategic marketing, diversity and learning communities. I also visited institutions of higher education in South Africa and around the United States. My host institution was Iowa State University where I focused on internationalization, diversity, strategic planning and budgeting. My mentors were President Gregory Geoffrey and Executive Vice President and Provost, Elizabeth Hoffman.

2009. UNT Honors College Eagle Feather Mentor of the Year 2009. Award given annually to a UNT faculty member for collaborating on research with Honors students.

2009. University of North Texas Leadership Fellow. Recognition and training for emerging administrative leaders at UNT.

2009. Fulbright Specialist. Autonomous University of Mexico State. May, 2009. An award and grant program for advanced scholars expert in international relations and comparative politics. I taught an intensive course on peace studies and conflict resolution to Master's students.

2007. Rowan and Littlefield Award for Innovative Teaching in Political Science with Professor Kimi King (UNT) for a Study Abroad course to the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia in The Hague, Netherlands. Award given annually to the most innovative course in political science in the United States.

2007. University of North Texas Honor Professor. Annual award voted on by the students to select the best professors on campus.

Administrative Experience

June 2015 -	Social Sciences Coordinator	College of Arts and Sciences	University of North Texas
July 2010 – May 2012	Acting Dean	Toulouse Graduate School	University of North Texas

Graduate School Accomplishments<sup>1</sup>

Recruitment: Developed UNT's first-ever campus-wide Graduate Student Recruitment Weekends. Developed UNT's first-ever Graduate School Open House. Developed Graduate School's first-ever Summer Research Seminar to introduce promising undergraduates from under-represented populations in Texas and surrounding states to research and graduate school. Travelled internationally to Chile, Ecuador, Mexico and China to recruit new students and develop relationships with partner institutions.

Retention: Created UNT's first-ever Dissertation Boot Camps to facilitate completion of dissertation writing. Developed Program Profile Data Base to provide data on all characteristics of graduate students and graduate programs to assess effectiveness of programs and allocate support. Created first-ever annual review of doctoral students to monitor graduate student progress. Reformed doctoral program rules to promote retention through reduction of university rules regarding required semester credit hours. Graduated record number of master's and doctoral students. Developed programs for teacher training; research grant writing and professional development.

Diversity: Created position of Student Success Coordinator to increase recruitment and retention of under-represented student populations. Created university-wide Diversity Advisory Committee. Enhanced UNT's McNair Scholars Fellows Program to provide tuition to graduates of McNair Programs who attend graduate school. Hosted 2012 Lone Star Graduate Diversity Colloquium to introduce students from diverse and under-represented populations to graduate schools.

<sup>1</sup> It should go without saying that all these accomplishments are a result of a team effort from the outstanding faculty and staff of the Toulouse Graduate School.

Development: Created UNT's first-ever Graduate Student Alumni event. Created Toulouse Graduate School Honor Society. Developed Graduate School's first-ever electronic newsletter for alumni. Created new Toulouse Graduate School Advisory Board. Raised record amounts through fundraising.

Other initiatives: Led effort to rename Graduate School. Led effort to reorganize the Graduate School commencement ceremony. Created student awards for international, interdisciplinary and societal impact research. Worked with Graduate Student Council to take part in National Graduate Student Appreciation Week for first-time at UNT. Renovated and enhanced Graduate School offices. Revised University policies on time to degree limits, tool subject requirements and semester credit hour requirements for graduate students on assistantships. All changes facilitated student completion of graduate degrees.

Major Areas of Responsibility

Academic Programs

Develop post-baccalaureate academic programs within the university in concert with the academic departments, the schools, and colleges, and the Graduate Council. Develop and apply policies that relate to and govern graduate studies, including admissions, changes in curriculum, degree programs, and organization, in concert with the deans, representatives of the faculty, and the Graduate Council. Liaison with the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board. Encourage excellence in all post-baccalaureate academic programs within the university. Develop, coordinate, and administer graduate programs through inter-university and inter-agency consortia. Develop extensive student recruiting activities at the graduate school and program levels with a special concentration on activities to recruit students underrepresented in graduate programs. Assist in the development of new graduate programs, the review of existing programs, and the successful marketing of graduate programs to new audiences, especially through distance education. Promote and secure additional student financial support, especially at the doctoral level, in collaboration with programs.

Administrative

Represent and enlist support for the broad interests of graduate studies and graduate students at the Council of Deans, the Enrollment Management Committee, the University Planning Council, and the Graduate Council. Work collaboratively with the Vice President for Research and Economic Development to maintain close coordination and advancement of graduate education and research. Chair the Graduate Council. Work with schools, colleges, and departments on policies and procedures that directly affect the conduct and governance of graduate studies within the university. Supervise and evaluate the work of the Associate Deans and Director of Admissions in the Toulouse Graduate School. Supervise and evaluate the work of the staff of the Toulouse Graduate School. Supervise and evaluate the work of Center and Institute Directors who report directly to the Center for Interdisciplinary Graduate Studies in the Toulouse Graduate School.

Faculty

Recommend to the Graduate Council the appointment of faculty members to the Graduate Faculty under specific criteria established by the Graduate Council. Provide appropriate nominations and recommendations and coordinating the evaluation process for various faculty and student awards and recognitions. Work with appropriate school and college committees on policies and procedures that directly affect the faculty with respect to graduate programs.

Other

Advise the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs on matters related to graduate studies. Support the institution's commitment to goals set forth in the UNT Strategic Plan and The Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board. Work in concert with the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs and the Office of Equity and Diversity to promote diversity of the faculty, staff, and graduate student body. Represent the university at social, alumni, advancement, and similar activities, especially where there is a connection to graduate studies. Work in close collaboration with and in support of the Vice President for Development and the deans of the schools and colleges in procuring external funding for graduate studies.
